

CHAPTER I.

LIFE AND TRAINING IN AMERICAN CAMPS.

ORGANIZATION OF REGIMENT.

The 321st Infantry had its beginning at Camp Jackson. It was organized by General Order 101, War Department, 1917. This order was effective August 5, 1917, but the organization of the regiment did not take place until the first week in September, 1917. The first officers' meeting was held August 31, 1917. The first assignment of officers was made September 4, and the first enlisted men arrived September 5.

The original staff was composed of the following officers:

Col. Edward W. Shuttleworth.

Lieut. Col. J. Malcolm Graham.

Capt. Gordan A. Duncan, Adjutant.

Major Max L. Barker, Commanding First Battalion.

Major Louis E. Schucker, Commanding Second Battalion.

Capt. Daniel W. Adams, Commanding Third Battalion.
